Press Release

3rd June 2019

The second leg of the 2019 Volleyball Island Tour took place at the Dickson Methodist School on Saturday 1st June and saw an increased number of teams taking part from 13 to 16. In the junior female division, Gremlins secured their second win of the tour with the trio of Ettonia Antrobus, Holly-Ann George and Aaliyah Laborde winning all four games in this division. The senior female category saw the emergence of a new winner with Country Roots topping this category from Gremlins and Unique Touch.

Due to lack of lighting, the junior and senior male categories were incomplete with two games remaining to be played in each. Of the five teams in the junior male category four teams, Gremlins 1 leads with three wins and Alliance, Country Roots and Gremlins 2, are tied with two wins each. In the senior male category there was a resurgence of former national players with Marlon Williams for Alliance and Shaun Young and Brian Burke of Gremlins attempting to strengthen their teams. Country Roots with current national players Asmond Franklyn, Ronaldo Franklyn, Deandre Quashie and junior talent Jamaar Cropper did not disappoint in front of an enthusiastic home crowd winning their two games with two games left to be played in the category.
